For immediate release

The quarterfinals are taking shape

Repentigny, August 29, 2018 – While most of the matches were played indoors because of the unrelenting rain, the top seeded players performed as expected, thus won their ticket to the quarterfinals.

On the girl's side

The top seed Clara Tauson (DEN) convincingly won her encounter against Sada Nahimana (BDI) by a score of 6-2, 6-1. The local favorite, Canadian Leylah Annie Fernandez started the match a little shakily and conceded the first set by the score of 6-2. She regained her composure in the following sets and started dictating the pace of the exchanges. Hence she won the following 2 sets by an identical score of 6-0. The partisan crowd manifested its support and pleasure with the outcome. The other Canadian in the draw, Jada Bui saw her journey end short of the quarterfinals. She conceded victory to her opponent Margaryta Bilokain (URK) by a score of 6-2, 6-2.

On the boy's side

The top seed Hugo Gaston (FRA) was on display on the main court. He won his ticket to the next round following a convincing win over Thiago Augustin Tirante (ARG) by the score of 6-3, 6-4. Jacob Fearley (GRB) who had previously and unexpectedly eliminated the second seed Naoki Tajima (JPN) was defeated by Emilio Nava (USA) by a score of 6-3, 6-4.
