Three Canadians in quarterfinals action

Repentigny, August 28th 2019 –The tournament's fifth day was a rainy one; all matches were played indoors at Repentigny's Recreation Centre. It was a bright day for Canadian players, as 3 athletes (2 girls and 1 boy) are heading to the quarter finals.

On the girls side

A good start for Canada, as Toronto's Jada Bui defeated 8th seed Selena Janicijevic (FRA) 7-5 and 6-1, allowing her to move on to quarter finals. Ontario's Ariana Arseneault continued her impressive journey by upsetting 1st seed Natsumi Kawaguchi (JPN) 6-4, 7-6 (8). Arseneault admitted that the match was indeed difficult but she believes her defensive play was better than her opponent's and feels quite confident for her next step into the competition.

Canadian Rachel Hanford's path ended with a 6-2, 6-3 loss to Korean Sohyun Park. As for Canadian Marina Stakusic, she was defeated 7-6(6), 7-5 by Spaniard Ane Mintegi Del Omo [10].

On the boys side

Not as many upsets were recorded in boys action as Belgian Gauthier Onclin [3] won against Arthur Cazaux (FRA) [14] in two sets, 6-1, 6-3. Frenchman Valentin Royer [4] is still alive as he defeated Italian Matteo Arnaldi [15]. Alexander Bernard (USA) was also shown the exit door by 13th seed Swiss Leandro Riedi. The only upset came from Francesco Maestrelli (ITA) as he defeated Hungarian Peter Makk, 6th seed, in two sets of 6-2 and 6-3. Canadian Joshua Lapadat continues to impress as he won his third match, 6-0, 6-1 against Italian Luciano Darder.

On the slate tomorrow

A quarterfinals matchup opposing two Canadians, Jada Bui and Ariana Arseneault, promises to be the highlight of the day. Also in action, the final Canadian boys pairing still playing, Joshua Lapadat and Ilya Tiraspolky, will try to qualify for the doubles finals.
