Tournament Favourites Move Ahead

Repentigny, August 25, 2025 – The top seeds have begun playing on center court at the 38th edition of the Repentigny National Bank Junior Tennis Internationaux. And once again, weather was on the organizers' side today, all of the scheduled matches being played without delay and interruption.

Centre Court

The first featured match of the evening was highly anticipated, as it showcased number one seed Mika Stojsavljevic in her first clash of the tournament. The Brit youngster, ranked 15th by the ITF, scored an easy victory over Quebec's Neda Rahimkhani. Stojsavljevic, last year's US Open junior champion at just 15 years of age, runner-up in doubles at Wimbledon and a fourth-place finisher at the ITF Junior Finals, has already achieved notable performances on the professional tour. Rahimkhani, a qualifier from Gatineau, had previously won her first-round match against American Kayla Brianne Moore 1-6, 6-4, 6-1.

Stojsavljevic had somewhat of a challenge trying to find her groove with an uneasy wind in the first set of the match. However, she quickly made proper adjustments and went on to a dominating 6-3, 6-2 win.
